Small Business Staffing Solutions

At VCMS Inc we understand that as a small business it is very challenging to sell your products at a competitive price and maintain a full time, competent support infrastructure.

To ease the burden of having to offer competitive compensation packages in order to retain quality employees, let VCMS Inc provide those services on an affordable, pay as you need basis.

We offer a variety of staffing support solutions that will eliminate the long term investment of full time employee benefits and the waste of under utilizing overhead staff.

Unlike a traditional staffing agency, you will be assigned a permanent account manager to implement and maintain processes that allow for seamless transition of VCMS Inc personnel as needed.

Computer and IT Retail

VCMS Inc has worked extremely hard at establishing a vast network of direct computer and IT product manufactures to be able to provide retail systems at wholesale cost.

The outstanding quality and cost of our systems leave our competition speechless, and when combined with our outstanding customer service and maintenance and warranty plans, there is definitely no need to look any further.

Whether looking to outfit or upgrade a small business solution, or just need a quality home system for family use, come find out for yourself why our first time VCMS Inc customers are lifetime customers!

For outstanding pricing on full business suites, basic home systems for Internet and email, or high powered home systems to meet the needs of a dynamic family, contact us today!

Technical Support and Services

We realize that average PC users are not trained in computer maintenance and care. Most IT Retailers would prefer you stay that way. At VCMS Inc we strive to ensure you and your family get the most out of your computer by providing outstanding and affordable maintenance with warranty and service options for all business and home users in the WNY area.

Some may question why, as a retailer, we would also provide services to extend the life of your current system? Our response would be, that is how we earn your trust! We will not sell you a new system until it is absolutely certain your old one will no longer perform as you require.

Stop the aggravation today and contact us to find out how we can maximize the benefit of the most used and potentially most expensive appliance in your home and/or business.

Wholesale Distribution

VCMS Inc has teamed with direct manufactures of products from trinkets and novelties to sporting equipment and electronics in order to be able to offer direct manufacturer wholesale pricing to support your resale needs.

Looking for that ultimate source to be able to beat the price of your competition and maximize profits? Then regardless of your specialized merchandise, we can assist in proving products direct from manufactures locally and overseas.

Tired of having to buy in extreme bulk quantities to gain a worthwhile discount? Want products manufactured to your specific requirements with your logo and packaging?

Contact us today for options on how we can support your distribution needs and eliminate middle man costs.
